Dear Editor :- We are glad to inform you again and hope that this missive will be conveyed to your Sunday School Church Union met with press without any difficulty. Our readuring Baptist Church of Shoulders ers we hope will be pleased to know lill, Vs. After the regular introduchow our distinguished divine, Bishop
H. M. Turner, was received in this dark continent of our fathers. Why, dark continent of our fathers. Why, the whole of this country was in great commotion, and every black man and woman were eagerly watching and awaiting his arrival, even the Arians, and at last he arrived; but we, who and at last he arrived; but we, who know more than our folks do, were very, very sorry to see that the most very, very sorry to see that the most distinguished customs. Yet, in all of his preaching and orations, his tongue did not slip of happen by mistake to mention any other man of mark of various donor meeting at wo in the Pireindly Hall; and the observer of these remarks was the first man who paid his admission fees at he preached of the honorable divine is really sowing the seed of unity or discord. But for me and mine, when a preacher of the gospel does not practice what he preaches, it is necessary for him to go to the preas and advertuse himself that he has lost the ticket of his real train; and again he should always take for the elose of his discourse 28:3 of St. Matt.

The venerable bishop laid stress to his hearers on the wonderful pro-

The venerable bishop laid stress to his hearers on the wonderful progress which is being made in America by nobody else but by the Bishops of the A. M. E. Church and her members alone. We noted this in his speech when speaking of the profoundest statesmen and orators of the Negro race in the United States. He never mentioned any one else but Bishops Arnett, Derrick, Lee, Grant, Drs. Parks, Price, Bruce and Clair. And we were more astonished knowing that mentioned any one else but Bishops
